

PR / SOCIAL ACCOUNT MANAGER

Overview:

Mission is actively looking for a PR, communications and social experienced account manager to join a dynamic and multi-skilled campaign team to work across a range of luxury food, beverage, property and lifestyle brands. The successful candidate will be responsible for managing costs, time scales and co-ordinating practice teams across numerous projects so exceptional project management skills and a critical eye for detail are essential. Previous experience in a project management role within an integrated agency is highly desirable.

Skills Required:

- Experience overseeing all day-to-day account handling procedures
- Integrated agency experience
- Strong planning, creative and strategic thinking skills
- Impeccable attention to detail
- Strong media relation skills
- Excellent writing skills and attention to detail
- Strong verbal communication skills, both in person and over the phone
- Fantastic organizational skills
- Personable and great interpersonal skills, both with clients and media
- Proficient in the writing of all public relations and social content materials and business correspondence

mission